C- SEVERAL JOINT ACCOUNTS

C.1 Each of the account holders shall be individually authorized to make disposition on the "Several Joint Deposit Account" and/or "Several Joint Investment Account" that is held with the Bank. Each of the account holders agrees and undertakes in advance to be responsible for the consequences of usage of the account by the other account holder or holders. However, for payment from the Accounts, presentation of the bankbooks of the Accounts is mandatory upon request of the Bank.

C.2 Each of the account holders have equal share on the account. Account holders are informed that if they intend to change their share amounts/ratios in the future, the Bank may be unable to fulfil such request due to technical impossibility. Consequently, in their instruction to the Bank, account holders may designate any option among converting such joint account into a "both-to sign" joint account where all partners are jointly entitled to the entire amount of the account and may perform any action on the account only with joint signature, or closing the account and transferring the balance equally and separately to existing accounts and/or accounts to be opened in the name of joint account holders, or closing the account by paying the balance in cash.

C.3 Account holders cannot prevent payment of money to other holders of the account from joint accounts merely by sending a written warning to the Bank without applying legal remedies.

C.4 It is sufficient for the Bank to deem other account holders been notified, by sending notification to only one of the joint account holders for monies deposited with the account by third parties and payments made to a third party upon instruction of one of the account holders and other transactions.

C.5 Each of the account holders may request closure of the account or transfer to another branch, and presentation of bankbook shall be mandatory during performance of such transactions upon Bank's request. .

C.6 Upon death of any of the account holders, other account holders agree that they are responsible until the notification to the Bank, for any liability that may arise towards Tax Offices and heirs of the decedent for the payments made by the Bank to them.

D- NON-SEVERAL JOINT ACCOUNTS

D.1 Account holders agree and undertake that they can make a disposition on such accounts only with their joint signatures, and they can use the products and services if they open a "Non-Several Joint Account" or have a Several Joint Account converted into non-several account, and accordingly they may use such products and services suitable for the contents and functions of the Non-several Joint Accounts.

D.2 Each Account Holder shall have an equal share on the account. Each Account Holder has been informed that in case account holders wish to change their currently equal share amounts/ rates, the Bank may not fulfil such wish due to technical impossibilities.

D.3 In case the Bank sends an account statement to either of the joint account holders only for such funds deposited by third parties to the account and payments made to third parties upon the instructions by all account holders and for other transactions, this shall suffice to consider that other account holders shall be deemed to have been informed accordingly.

D.4 Account holders may require that the account should be closed or transferred to another branch subject to the instruction by all account holders, and it is mandatory to present account books if requested by the Bank in the course of these transactions.

G- USAGE OF CREDIT CARDS

Where the Customer is a Consumer as per the Consumer Protection Law and the applicable legislation, the Customer shall have the right to withdraw from those provisions of the "USAGE OF CREDIT CARDS" in the Banking Services Agreement which contain regulations governing the issue of a credit card that allows payments in instalments or a deferral of payments more than a quarter against an interest or a similar benefit without providing any cause and paying any penalty whatsoever provided that he shall give a notice to the Bank within fourteen days from the date on which he has applied to the Bank for the credit card and further provided that such right shall be only related and limited to the credit card for which the right of withdrawal shall be exercised.

Upon the Customer's delivery of withdrawal notice to the Bank, the related credit card shall be closed to use and all instructions in connection with that card, including the automatic payment orders shall be cancelled.

The Customer shall be obliged to return the principal amount and pay the interest within thirty days. In case the return and these payments are not done within that period, the Customer shall be deemed not to have withdrawn. In such a case, any and all instructions, including the cancelled automatic payment instructions based on the withdrawal notice shall not be automatically activated and the Customer shall be required to give instructions again in order to activate them.

In circumstances where the Customer is deemed not to have withdrawn, the interest that may arise due to the late payment of debts following the delivery of the withdrawal notice shall be paid by the Customer.

In case of a withdrawal, expenses paid to public agencies, bodies or third parties shall be borne by the Customer and these sums shall be in no event returned to the Customer.

G.1 While giving a Credit Card, in addition to the opened Credit Card Account, the Bank may also open a Demand TL account for the Credit Card Holder.

G.2 The Credit Card Holder agrees and undertakes to provide true and authentic documents as required by the Bank at the time of the credit card application.

G.3 Where the Credit Card Holder and/ or the Supplemental Card Holder signs this Agreement, this does not oblige the Bank to give a Credit Card. The Bank issues a Credit Card for the Credit Card Holder and/or Supplemental Card Holder with the limit it deems appropriate as a result of its evaluation based on the application form and attached documents and other information it will gather. Credit Cards to be issued after signing of this agreement upon the Customer's request shall also be within the scope of this Agreement.

G.4 Credit Card Holder and Supplemental Card Holder shall be severally liable for transactions made with Supplemental Card.

G.5 Credit Card Limit will be notified in writing at the time of delivery of the Credit Card to the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder. The Bank is entitled to reduce the Credit Card Limit of the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder subject to the regulations set out in Article 9 of the Debit Cards and Credit Cards Law no 5464. In case the Bank reduces the Credit Card and/ or the Customer Limit, this shall be notified to the Credit Card Holder/ Supplementary Card Holder. In case the Bank reduces the Credit Card and/ or the Customer limit, this shall be notified to the Credit Card Holder and the Additional Cardholder.

G.6 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s), to use his/her card subject to the Credit Card Limit to be notified to him/her by the Bank, and if the credit card limit is exceeded due to expenditures of the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder without Bank's initiative, or the card limit is exceeded not more than two times a calendar year provided that this excess shall not be more than twenty percent of the allocated limit and it shall be settled in the next account statement period, a contractual interest shall accrue on the excess amount at such rate to be determined by the Bank for the period between the transaction date and the payment date.

G.7 The Bank may increase the card limits by taking a request from the Card Holder. Furthermore, the Bank may increase the card limit periodically based on the evaluation results, upon a general instruction from the Credit Card Holder through the places and channels as specified by the relevant legislation. The Credit Card Holder agrees that the limit increase shall be valid if he/she does not object the Bank's notification 15 days in advance of the date the increase will be effective. But, the limit of a credit card for which payments are done less than the minimum amount due under the account statement, maximum three times a calendar year may not be increased until and unless the period debt is fully paid. This kind of cards may not be used for cash withdrawal. Also, limits of credit cards, for which payments are made less than the minimum amount due under the account statement, consecutively three times in a calendar year, shall not be increased until the debt for the period is paid in full, and such cards shall be suspended for cash withdrawal and shopping.;

G.8 It is mandatory that the Credit Card Holder or the Supplemental Card Holder signs the authorized signatory band overleaf the Credit Card at the time when he accepts the delivery of the card. The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder shall bear all legal liabilities arising from the failure to sign the said band. The Credit Card Holder or the Supplemental Card Holder must present an identification card upon the Merchant's request.

G.9 Credit Cards/ Supplemental Cards are valid at Merchants, the Bank's Branches, units authorized by the Bank's and/or International Card Institutions' merchants and ATM's until the expiry date specified thereon. By using their Credit Card, the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder may have access to his/her/their Credit Card account through Bankamatiks/ Bankamatik(+)'s/Netmatiks or may use all Bankamatik/Bankamatik(+)' Netmatik services provided to their other accounts, with their Credit Card.

G.10 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) that the card will be valid until the last day (including the last day) of the month shown on the card as the expiry date as month and year, and shall not be usable after such date. Expired credit cards will be renewed with a new expiry date if deemed appropriate by the Bank and not stated otherwise by the Credit Card Holder at least two months in advance.

G.11 The card is a property of the Bank, and the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder is/are obliged to promptly return the card(s) (including the supplemental cards) to the Bank upon request of the Bank. The Bank may seize them if deemed necessary either specifically by itself or through ATM's, International Card Institutions, or the Merchants.

G.12 Expenditure slip issued at Merchant during purchase of goods and/or services will be signed by the Credit Card Holder or Supplemental Card Holder except for cases where the Credit Card Holder or the Supplemental Card Holder is identified by a code number, code or any other identifying method. The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) to keep the copy of Expenditure slip given to him/her as issued by Merchants for tracking the operation of the account.

G.13 There is no need to issue an Expenditure slip in Credit Card Holder's and/or the Supplemental Card Holder's purchases or requests of goods or services via phone or the internet or an order form using his/her Credit Card number.

G.14 The amount on the Credit note issued by Merchants upon returning of goods or cancellation of services purchased using the Credit Card, or upon refund of an excess charge or for any other reason shall be credited to the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder's Credit Card Account. The Credit Card Holder and/or Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) that the Bank shall not be a party in any manner whatsoever to disputes that may arise between him/her and the Merchant upon return of goods and/or services.

G.15 The Bank shall not be a party in any manner whatsoever in disputes that may arise involving issues like type, quality, content, defect, delivery, return, etc. of the goods and/or services bought by the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder at Merchants. Debt payments arising from this Agreement towards the Bank may not be suspended or used as a defence based on such causes. The Credit Card Holder agrees that, the debts arising from his/her and/or Supplemental Card Holder's purchase or request of goods or services via the Credit Card shall be debited on his/her Credit Card account.

Credit Cardholder agrees that such debits and credits arising from the use by him and/ or Additional Cardholder of the Credit Card abroad shall be converted to such currency types designated by the Bank at such rates set by the International Card Institution and shall be notified to the Bank accordingly. Commission fees for any transaction and cash advance by the Credit Cardholder/ Additional Cardholder shall be debited/ credited with the account by applying the closing FX selling rate applicable at the Bank's counters on the day immediately preceding the date on which the transaction is debited with the card in TL credit card accounts whereas in FX-linked Credit card accounts, this sum shall be credited/ debited with the account by such amounts notified by the International Card Institution. The Credit Cardholder agrees that in payments to be made to the FX-linked TL Credit Card accounts, such FX selling rate applicable at the Bank's counters on the payment date shall be applicable.

G.17 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder may withdraw cash from his/her Credit Card Account via units authorized by the Bank and/or International Card Institution member institutions, Merchants and/or ATM's, using the Credit Card. Purchases of precious metals, mines and goods as stated in the Resolution number 32 on Protection of the Value of Turkish Money, as enforced by Cabinet decision dated 7/8/1989 under number 89/14391, or of foreign currencies, or debt transfers performed by the Card holder for closing the debt of any other credit card, and all payments to persons or institutions, and games of chance or fortune, and stock exchange transactions/security purchases, travel checks, transactions performed via jewelers, and remittances are all equivalent to cash advances..

G.18 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder undertake(s) not to exceed the limit set by the Bank in cash advance transactions, and to pay excess amount back to the Bank upon the payment of an excess amount t from ATMs that surpasses the requested sum. The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) that, in cash advances from Credit Card account, Credit Card Account will be debited as much as the cash he/she has withdrawn, and in accordance with article G. 29 of this Agreement, an interest on such amount from the transaction date, and BITT and RUSF on the interest amount shall be accrued. The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) that on holidays transaction date will be the last business day before the cash advance transaction, and the transaction date shall be predicated upon as the commencement date for interest on cash advance transactions.

G.19 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) and undertake(s) to pay such delay interest to be calculated at the rate stated in the annex, and the BITT and RUSF to be calculated over that sum in cash advance transactions which shall be paid in equal instalments and are to be carried out the Bank's Branches, Internet Branch and/or ATMs on such maturities to be set by the Bank. The Bank may set the rate of interest cost, not exceeding the maximum contractual interest rate for credit cards announced by CBRT, according to transaction's term and the channel of transaction whatsoever, including bank branches, internet branches or ATMs.

G.20 At the time of cash advance transaction from Credit Card Holder's and/or the Supplemental Card Holder's Credit Card account, a Cash Payment Slip will be issued, and such document will be signed by the Credit Card Holder or the Supplemental Card Holder except for cases where the Credit Card Holder or the Supplemental Card Holder is identified by a code number, code or any other identifying method. However, as a Cash Payment Slip cannot be issued in transactions of cash advance via ATM's, the Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder acknowledge(s) that Bank's records shall constitute conclusive evidence, which will operate as an evidence contract and shall be binding for him/her.

G.21 The Credit Card Holder agrees and undertakes to pay the cash advance transaction commission at the rates and amounts stated in annexes as set by the Bank for cash advances, and that such commission may be changed by the Bank under Article G.33 of this agreement by giving a notice to the Credit Card Holder.

G.22 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder agree(s) and undertake(s) to pay the late interest and BITT and RUSF to be calculated on such interest in deferred payment transactions to be carried out at such merchants which have entered into a deferred sales agreement with the Bank. The Bank may set the late interest for enterprises at such rates not exceeding maximum contractual interest rate applicable to credit cards as announced by the CBRT.

G.23 The Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder agrees to pay the Annual Fee for the Primary Card Annual Membership Fees for each Supplemental Card, amounts of which are set by the Bank and shown in Annex-2. Such annual membership fees for Supplemental Cards may be changed by the Bank under the article G.33 of this Agreement with a notice to the Credit Card Holder Annual Membership Fee for the Credit Card will be debited in Credit Card Holder's/Supplemental Card Holder's Credit Card account, if the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder does not apply to the Bank in writing, at least two months in advance of card's expiry date stating that he does not wish to renew the card,, and the card is eventually renewed.

G.24 The Credit Card Holder agrees that all debit and credit entries on his/her account due to usage of the Credit Card domestically or abroad will be broken down by the Bank into the Credit Card Account Statement on Account Closing Date and shall be accordingly notified to him/ her. The Credit Card Holder is obliged to learn his/her debt using the facilities provided to him/her by the Bank (phone, Bankamatik, internet, etc.) even if he/she does not receive his/her Account Statement until the final payment date, or to request his/her Account Statement from the Bank in writing such that it shall have been received by the Bank until such final payment date. As the Account Closing and final payment dates for the next period are stated in the previous period's Account Statement sent to the Credit Card Holder, the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder may not assert that he is not in default in case he/ she does not make the required payment.

G.25 The Credit Card Holder agrees, represents and undertakes that the total debt amount and/or the minimum payment amount stated in the account statement of the Credit Card will be collected by the Bank on the due date from Credit Card Holder's account held with the Bank.

G.26 Credit Card Holder's right to challenge the debit and credit entries notified to him/her in the Credit Card Account Statement is reserved. However, the Credit Card Holder agrees that he/she shall notify to the Bank the items on the account statement objected by him/ her along with the rationale thereof within 10 days from the Due Date of the period involving the transactions covered by his/her objection; that otherwise the Account Statement shall become final, and Bank's books and all records including computer records shall be final and conclusive evidence for all objections and disputes arising in relation with the Credit Card, and that he/she shall not be entitled to challenge the Bank's records. The Bank shall answer complaints and objections of Credit Card Holders about the card usage within 20 days from date of application.

G.27 The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder is/are obliged to pay the minimum amount required to be paid as stated in the Credit Card Account Statement by the due date at the latest to avoid any default. Interest shall not accrue on debts arising from purchase of goods or services if the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder pay(s) the total debt amount stated in the Credit Card Account Statement by the due date. The Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder accepts that if he/she pays a portion of the period debt, the interest, fund share and tax shall be calculated on the remaining account balance in accordance with article G.28 of this Agreement; that contractual interest will be applied on the remaining account balance upon the payment of the minimum amount while if a payment less than the minimum amount is paid, a default interest shall be applied to the unpaid portion of minimum amount whereas the contractual interest shall be applied to the remaining account balance in excess of the minimum amount.

G.28 The Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes that, the applicable contractual and default interest rates shall not exceed the maximum rates set by the CBRT; that he/ she shall pay the interest to be calculated at the maximum contractual and default interest rates set by the CBRT, and the BITT and RUSF to be calculated on such interest amounts in cases provided for in articles G.6, G.18, G.27 and G.29 of this Agreement. No compound interest shall be applied on debts arising from the Card practice.

G.29 If the minimum required payment which must be paid for the period between the Account Closing Date and the due date and which is notified to the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder on the Credit Card Account Statement is not paid by the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder within such period, then the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes that the Bank may suspend the usage of the card, and all of his/her debts and liabilities arising from this Agreement shall become due and payable without any further notice; that he/she shall promptly pay the same upon Bank's notification; that if the Customer fails to pay the minimum amount stated on an account statement, the sum of due debt and the debts which have become due in previous periods but not paid shall be set-off and offset from the Customer's balance in current account associated with the credit card upon notice; that if the Customer fails to pay the minimum amount shown on two consecutive account statements, his debts shall be set-off and offset by the Bank respectively from the customer's balance in demand deposit account associated with the credit card, the available balance of investment account associated with the current account, the liquid funds in the investment account associated with the current account, and the balance of guide account and the investment account associated with the guide account; and he/she shall pay default interest, fund and taxes accrued over all accelerated debts for the time between the due date of the related period and settlement of all debts, as well as the expenses of the Bank in relation with the debt, as stated in article G.30 hereof.

G.30 The Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes to pay the expenses arising due the telephone calls, notices, SMS, warning letters sent through a notary public, the amounts of which are set out in the annexes hereto, or that such amounts shall be debited to his/her credit card account or collected from his/her other accounts.

G.31 The Credit Card Holder/ Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes that the Bank shall be entitled to convert FX-linked TL Credit Card debts into TLs in legal follow-up stage at Bank's currency selling rate at the booth effective on such date, and that he/she shall pay default interest on the balance constituted in such state.

G.32 The Credit Card Holder/ Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes that the interests, fees, expenses and commissions may be changed by the Bank upon effective notices to the Credit Card Holder within the context of article G.33 of this Agreement.

G.33 The Bank shall notify the Credit Card Holder about any change in this Agreement, including interest rates, commissions and any fee via the account statement or other methods in line with the applicable legislation. The Card Holder agrees and undertakes that, the changes in this Agreement shall be valid from the final payment date for the period of notification, and that he/she shall be deemed to consent to such changes if he/she continues to use the Card after the final payment date related to the period referred in the notification. The Bank shall notify the Credit Card Holder/Supplemental Card Holder via account statement or other means defined in the applicable legislation 30 days in advance if it increases the interest rates. The Credit Card Holder and/or the Supplemental Card Holder shall not be affected from interest increase if he/she pays his/her entire debt within maximum 60 days, provided that usage of the Card is promptly ceased as of the notification date.

G.34 If upon the Bank's request, the Credit Card Holder fails to evidence his/her income, or if the income declared by the Credit Card Holder is deemed insufficient by the Bank or if the Bank determines that Credit Card Holder's ability of repayment has diminished and/or there are other justifiable reasons, then the Bank may require surety or pledge of movable/immovable assets and/ or any other guarantee applicable to the Bank from the Credit Card Holder during the credit relationship. The Credit Card Holder agrees that the Bank shall be entitled to require new suretyship or movable/ immovable pledges and/ or other guarantees acceptable to the Bank for causes such as Credit Card Holder's and/or Guarantor/Guarantors' losing the ability to pay or the collaterals received becoming impaired.

G.35 The Credit Card Holder agrees that the Bank shall be entitled to render the entire debt due and payable and request immediate payment thereof, if any of the information in the Application Form and its attachments is found to be untrue, or the Card Holder is found to have lost his ability to make payments in part or in full, or if an interlocutory injunction or cautionary attachment order is obtained by third parties against him/ her, or he/ she fails to give additional collaterals despite such a request for additional collaterals pursuant to article G.34 of this Agreement, or that the debt is not paid due to his/her death or his/her bankruptcy, or his/her request of extension of composition, or his/her being incapacitated, or appointment of a trustee or any other justified reason..

G.36 If the Bank receives a guarantor for the Credit Card, such guarantee shall be subject to provisions on ordinary guarantee as set forth in the Turkish Law of Obligations. Performance of the debt cannot be requested from the guarantor unless the Bank applies to the original debtor and tries all courses for collection of the debt. Event of default for the guarantor starts with notification of Credit Card Holder's debt to him. Amendments in the provisions of current agreement that would increase the liabilities of guarantor and increase in card limit shall be subject to guarantor's written consent to be effective to the guarantor.

G.37 The Credit Cardholder agrees and represents to pay any expenses incurred for telephone calls to be made, SMS and mails and notices to be sent by the Bank, and the resultant taxes and fund shares arising therefrom, on account of the fact that the credit cardholder defaults in paying off his/ her debts.

G.38 The Credit Cardholder and/ or Additional Cardholder irrevocably agrees that such details and information represented by him/ her at the time of the card application are true and complete; that the Bank shall be authorized to do such intelligence works that it may deem necessary and that it shall submit such required documents to the Bank.

G.39 The Credit Card Holder and/or Supplemental Card Holder agrees and undertakes that in purchases/sales of goods/ services at merchants authorized by the Bank, there may be "Instalment Sales with Delay Interest" or "Instalment Sales without Delay Interest", and different instalment options may be offered on merchant basis, and/or on product basis at the same merchant, and while rewards/points/miles are earned in a single step in transactions under "Instalment Sales with Delay Interest" and "Instalment Sales without Delay Interest”, no reward/point/mile will be earned in transactions under “Instalment Sales with Delay Interest”.

G.40 Deferment of outright shopping is possible via branches, internet branch or call centre until the account closing date following the transaction. Such deferment can be cancelled likewise via branches, internet branch or call centre until the account closing date following the transaction, but if a card holder intends to cancel the deferment after the account closing date, early payment via branches, internet branch or call centre is required. Channels where deferment and early payment can be made are determined and published by the Bank. In early payments, the interest reflected on the card holder will not be refunded. The Bank is entitled to notify the interest rates applicable for installments in line with the procedures set out in the applicable law and at certain periods upon prior notification.

G.41 Setting of an instalment plan for outright purchases is possible via branches, internet branch or call center until the account closing date following the transaction. Such setting of an instalment plan can be cancelled likewise via branches, internet branch or call center until the account closing date following the transaction, but if a card holder intends to cancel the setting of an instalment plan after the account closing date, early payment via branches, internet branch or call center is required. Channels where setting of an instalment plan and early payment can be made are determined and published by the Bank. In early payments, the interest reflected on the card holder will not be refunded. The Bank is entitled to notify the interest rates applicable for installments in line with the procedures set out in the applicable law and at certain periods upon prior notification..

G.42.-The customer agrees that the minimum amount due may not be less than twenty seven percent of the debt for the period for credit cards with a credit card limit up to 15.000 Turkish Liras, or thirty two percent of the debt for the period for credit cards with a credit card limit from 15.000 Turkish Liras up to 20.000 Turkish Liras, or forty percent of the debt for the period for credit cards with a credit card limit of 20.000 Turkish Liras or higher, and forty percent of the debt for the period for newly assigned credit cards until expiry of one year from beginning of usage of the card, and the bank may set the minimum amount due, no less than the foregoing amounts.

G.43. He/ she agrees and undertakes that he/ she has been duly informed that in case of multiple loans extended by the Bank and where either of these loans is accepted as frozen debts (non-performing loan) due to the requirements of the categorization in this respect, cards shall be also categorized as frozen (non-performing) loans pursuant to the Regulation on Procedures and Principles for the Determination by Banks of Loans and Other Receivables and the Provisios to be set aside for them and that in such a case his/ her credit cards may be blocked by the Bank against further use.

G.44 The Bank agrees, represents and undertakes that in cases of losses, thefts or damages to credit card holder’s primary or additional cards as well as of those goods to be purchased at home or abroad by using those cards shall be covered by the Shopping Insurance Coverage up to a limit of 3,000 TL per event with a maximum limit up to 2 damages or losses a year; that the terms and conditions applicable to the shopping insurance (amendments, termination, discontinuation) shall be notified by the Bank online, via account statements, card carriers or other similar channels.

In relation with Customer's repo and/or reverse repo transactions which will be performed from Bank's portfolio and/or via the Bank, all provisions of this Agreement with particular emphasis on the following ones shall be applicable:

J.17.a The Customer agrees and undertakes to transmit to the Bank his/her requests on repo and/or reverse repo transactions, orally or in writing until 12:00 o'clock on the date he/she wants the transaction to be executed.

J.17.b The Customer agrees and undertakes to buy the securities subject to repurchase agreement as agreed and stated in the slip content, and to sell them back at their maturity and/or to sell the securities subject to reverse repurchase agreement and repurchase at maturity.

J.17.c The Customer may not change any order placed by him/ her orally or in writing after such order is placed.. The Customer irrevocably agrees in advance that the records and accounts held with the Bank and slips issued by the Bank shall be predicated upon in any dispute and these shall constitute conclusive evidence.

J.17.d In order to ensure performance of the repurchase transaction, the Customer will transfer the repo amount in cash to his such account to be used for repo transaction until 13:00 o'clock on the transaction date, or until 15:00 o'clock in case the payment is made on account or through "Electronic Fund Transfer" (EFT) from any other Bank. Otherwise, it shall be Bank's initiative whether or not to perform the repo transaction or to perform with the next day as value date.

J.17.e The Customer agrees and undertakes, that in reverse repo transaction, the consideration to buy the Bank's securities shall be credited by the Bank to his/her account, and to have the amount for selling the agreed-upon securities at maturity in the same account to be offset for Bank's receivables, or to pay the Bank in cash and in a single sum, until 15:00 o'clock at the latest.

J.17.f Customer's liabilities are integral. Parties have agreed that the Bank shall not have any obligation unless he/she fully and timely fulfils all of his obligations.

J.17.g All taxes, charges, expenses and funds payable that arise or will be arisen in the future in relation with the repo and reverse repo transactions shall be met by the Customer.

J.17.h In repo transactions, although ownership of the securities passes to the Customer, returns shall belong to the Bank. In reverse repo transactions, ownership and all returns of the securities pass to the Bank. At maturity, ownership of the securities will pass back to the counterparty by payment of the consideration.

J.17.i The Bank is obliged to deliver the securities subject to repo, and the Customer is obliged to deliver the securities subject to reverse repo, to the Central Bank of Turkey or custodians that are authorized by the related legislation to be deposited within the framework of regulations made or to be made by the Central Bank of Turkey.

J.17.j The Bank is authorized to collect the custody fees arising from depositing the securities subject to repo with the Central Bank of Turkey or in custodians that are authorized by the related legislation, from the Customer.

J.17.k Within the scope and framework of the provisions of this Agreement, the Bank will perform the repo and reverse repo transactions as instructed to it in accordance and restricted with the instruction, pursuant to the Capital Markets Law and related legislation, according to availability of market conditions.

J.17.l The Bank shall deliver to the Customer an advise notice showing such minimum information as set out in present or future legislation for each individual repo or reverse repo transaction.

J.17.m The Bank agrees and undertakes to sell the securities subject to repo and repurchase at maturity, or to buy the securities subject to reverse repo and resell at maturity, as agreed-upon and stated in the slip content.

J.17.n The Bank will transact for and on its own behalf, for and on Customer's behalf, on its own name for Customer's account in the Stock Exchange; and only for and on its own behalf on the off-stock exchange.

J.17.o Bank's all liabilities arising from such transaction will end by crediting Customer's account at maturity, with the amount of securities subject to repo as agreed-upon and stated in slip content.

J.17.p Upon application of sequestration or preliminary injunction, a restriction such as attachment or pledge on the securities sold to the Customer with repo agreement for any reason, Bank's commitment for repurchasing the securities at maturity shall become invalid and the slip of such commitment and the custody slip shall become ineffective against the Bank.

J.17.r Term and associated interest rate for each repo and reverse repo transaction will be determined by parties.

J.17.s The Customer agrees that if he/she does not resell the securities subject to repo, or repurchase the securities subject to reverse repo, he/she shall pay a default interest at twice the highest current interest rate applicable by the Bank at such time on credits operating as debit current account, on the value that the assets that are decided during the transaction will reach at maturity, for the period in default, together with excise duty and fund share on such interest, and in addition, the default interest in a similar manner for all expenses incurred by the Bank, upon Bank's first request. The Bank shall be liable on legal interest rate upon default of the Bank to fulfil its performances.

J.17.t For terms not specifically stated in this section, the definitions/meanings stated in the Capital Markets Law, Communiqués and related legislation shall be predicated upon.

J.17.u The Customer agrees and undertakes that the provisions of this Agreement related to "Repo and Reverse Repo transactions" shall be repealed upon written notification of the parties one month in advance, and in such case, repo and reverse repo transactions made between the parties before termination of the agreement shall be concluded by mutual performance of the liabilities at maturity in accordance with the conditions stated in the slips issued in relation with such transactions.

J.18 The Bank shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever in case the Capital Market Instruments or precious metals purchased by the Bank on behalf of the Customer or deposited with the Bank by the Customer for sale turn out to be prohibited or defective or fake or the coupon and/or the pre-emptive rights or rights to receive bonus share at such time are incomplete or the fineness of precious metals is defective, except for cases where any fault may be attributed to the Bank. In reverse repo transactions, the Customer shall bear all the liabilities arising from the securities subject to the transaction that pass to the ownership of the Bank being prohibited, falsified or fake. The Customer agrees that he/she shall be obliged to compensate the Bank for all losses that have arisen and will arise for such cause.

J.19 The Customer agrees and undertakes that in transactions performed in both domestic and international markets within the scope of Bank's intermediary services regarding both the Investment Accounts and Repo and Reverse Repo transactions, the Bank is merely an intermediary and consequently the Bank shall not be liable for the obligation towards the counterparty of the transaction performed. The Customer agrees and undertakes that the Bank shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for failure of the order to be realized fully or partially, or for the counterparty's failure to deliver the securities or to pay the consideration in the realized orders or for failure to realize the transaction for any other reason not caused by the Bank, under the market conditions.

J.20 The Customer agrees, represents and undertakes, in cases where he/she participates in the borrowings of the Undersecretariat of Treasury, in any title whatsoever, via the Bank;

J.20.a That the conditions stated in the announcements published on the transaction by the relevant authorities shall be applicable to him/her and shall not make any exceeding request from the Bank,
J.20.b That he/she is informed about the system, and that he/she shall not have any claim against the Bank if he/she does not place his/her bid within the framework of the announcements made and in accordance with the terms and conditions set by the Bank,
J.20.c That the bid he/she gives via Bank's branches or Instant Banking, within the system set by relevant authorities and in accordance with the time and conditions set by the Bank shall be binding on him/her, that it is a matter of his/her bid whether the purchase is realized or not, and the Bank shall have no liability on this issue,
J.20.d That it is his/her own liability to fully and timely deposit the cash money and/or collateral required to participate in such borrowing transactions through the Bank, in accordance with the conditions set by the Bank, and that the Bank shall not be liable in any manner whatsoever for his/her failure to participate in the borrowing transaction in case of failure to fulfil such condition, and if the transaction amount that must be collected from the Customer is not paid to the Bank by the Customer on account or in cash upon realization of the transaction, the preliminary collateral given to the Bank by the Customer shall be set-off and offset in return to Bank's receivables.

K.15 The Customer irrevocably agrees that interest to be charged on the Time Gold Deposit Accounts shall be freely determined by the Bank and unless the Bank issues its written consent, the Customer may not withdraw the gold in the Time Gold Deposit Account in full or in part, and thus not close the Account before the maturity date nor may he change its term and he shall not have any right of claim or objection in this respect;

K.16 If the Bank accepts the withdrawal of the gold in the Time Gold Deposit Account prior to the maturity, the Bank shall be entitled to charge such interest rate that it freely determines for the Demand Gold Deposit Accounts on the gold withdrawn prior to the maturity;

K.17 Unless and until the Customer withdraws his gold and the interest accrued thereon in the Time Gold Deposit Account in full by the end of the Bank's office hours on the maturity day or gives a written order to the Bank by that time, describing how to proceed with the account, the Customer agrees, represents and undertakes that the Bank shall novate and renew the said gold and interest in the said account at such interest rate designated by the Bank and for the same term, in which case the maturity expiry date of the previous account shall be taken into consideration as the value date for the new account;

K. 18 In case of the gold and interest payments in grams to be made to the Customer out of his account with the Bank, the said gram gold shall be purchased by the Bank and its consideration to be calculated at the Bank's gold purchase price on the actual payment date shall be paid to the Customer in TL.

K.19 The Customer agrees in advance that in the event that the Customer gives a minimum 3-business day written notice to the Bank, demanding that the payment should be made in the form of physical gold and this request is accepted by the Bank, the gold shall be paid to the Customer by means of a delivery at a place acceptable to the Bank in Istanbul and the Customer shall strictly comply with the physical delivery date, time and procedure to be set by the Bank and that he shall not make any demand which may be in conflict with such procedure ;

K.20 In case of physical gold delivery, he shall pay in advance such relative commission to be designated by the Bank on TL equivalent of the gold to be withdrawn from the account together with any and all taxes, duties and charges and the Bank shall be authorized to adjust the commission fees and expenses ex officio without any prior notice to the Bank;

K. 21 The physical delivery of the gold as described in the paragraphs above is applicable for such gold of 5 kg or its multiples in the form of one kg above it; the gold which weighs less than 5 kg may in no event be physically delivered and in this case, such equivalent of the gold calculated at the Bank's gold purchase price on the payment date shall be paid to the Customer in TL and the Customer agrees with and makes no objection against it;

K.22 The pricing applicable for the trading of gold from the Bank shall be unilaterally done and set by the Bank, taking into consideration the then prevailing market terms and conditions; the Customer shall not have any objection there against and any and all market risks that may arise from the trading of the gold shall be borne by it;

K.23 All kinds of taxes, duties, charges and other expenses that may arise from the gold trading to be made under this agreement shall be borne by it; he shall immediately pay all taxes, duties, charges and other expenses that the Bank is obliged to pay for any reason whatsoever upon the Bank's first demand and without raising any objection or plea whatsoever;

K.24 He shall strictly comply with any potential changes to the applicable legislation or any regulations that the Bank may unilaterally introduce to govern the gold trading without any prior notice to the Customer;

K.25 In case of any and all disputes that may arise from or in connection with this Agreement, including the payment disputes, the Bank's books and all kinds of records, computer records, microfilms and microfiches etc shall represent valid and exclusive evidence and this article shall be an evidence contract pursuant to Article 193 of the Code of Civil Procedures.

L- OVERDRAFT ACCOUNTS (ADDITIONAL ACCOUNT)

Where the Customer is a Consumer as per the Consumer Protection Law and the applicable legislation, the Customer shall have the right to withdraw from those provisions of the "L- OVERDRAFT ACCOUNTS (ADDITIONAL ACCOUNT)" in the Banking Services Agreement which contain regulations governing the issue of a credit card that allows payments in instalments or a deferral of payments more than a quarter against an interest or a similar benefit without providing any cause and paying any penalty whatsoever provided that he shall give a notice to the Bank within fourteen days from the date on which he has applied to the Bank for the credit card and further provided that such right shall be only related and limited to the credit card for which the right of withdrawal shall be exercised.

Upon the Customer's delivery of withdrawal notice to the Bank, the related overdraft account shall be closed to usage. If the Customer uses his additional account during the period between the opening date of the additional account and the date on which the withdrawal right is notified, he shall be obliged to return the principal amount and pay the interest that shall accrue between the date on which the Overdraft Account is used and the principal amount is repaid within thirty days following the receipt by the Bank of the withdrawal notice. In case the returns and payments are not fully done within that period, the Customer shall be deemed not to have waived..

In circumstances where the Customer is deemed not to have withdrawn, the interest that may arise due to the late payment of the debt shall be paid by the Customer.

In case of a withdrawal, expenses paid to public agencies, bodies or third parties shall be borne by the Customer and these sums shall be in no event returned to the Customer.

The Customer agrees, represents and undertakes the following:

L.1 If an Overdraft Account limit is allocated to the Customer due to a demand acceptable to the Bank, the Bank shall be authorized to set the credit limit and utilization terms depending on the then prevailing conditions and his/her finances; and the Bank may notify the new credit limit so determined at the Customer's discretion or request in writing or via permanent data storage unit, he/she shall comply with the limit change as of the date of such change, and shall utilize the credit from the Overdraft Account within the credit limit set by the Bank,

L.2 In case the amounts of checks to be drawn may be covered by the Bank subject to the credit limit upon the Customer's request in this respect in case the limit granted by the Bank is acceptable, and if the limit is exceeded, it will be treated as dishonoured cheque;

L.3 In cases where the current account balance is not available, and subject to the Customer's request in this respect, remittance orders he/she may place will be performed by debiting his/her Overdraft Account, to be fulfilled according to the provisions of this agreement on remittances,;

L.4 Any debt, instalment amount, insurance premiums, invoice payments on instruction and all fees, commissions and expenses due/accrued under this agreement, and credit card agreements, consumer loan agreement he/she has signed and/or will sign, including but not limited to all other agreements, undertakings, requests etc., shall be collected from him/her by the Bank by debiting his/her Overdraft Account if the balances of his/her deposit accounts are insufficient, and subject to a written instruction of the Customer.

L.5 Credit will be utilized through the Instant Banking system and booths, and particularly through ATMs. As the account opened by the Bank as overdraft account is associated with Customer's Demand Deposit Account, The Bank shall be authorized to offset the Customer's credit debt from the money deposited on the account or from the incoming remittances promptly or at day-ends. The Customer agrees and undertakes that the overdraft account will be operated within the framework of provisions below.

L.6 Provided that the rate set out in the Communique governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions shall not be exceeded, credit interest to be calculated over the rate to be notified by the Bank to customers via permanent data storage unit shall be periodically accrued and collected. The Customer agrees and represents that the interest over its Overdraft Account associated with his/her Demand Deposit Account held with the Branch and the RUSF and BITT over such amount from his account, and other expenses will be collected by the Bank on its discretion, and if his/her account balance is not sufficient to cover such amounts, default interest to be calculated over the rate notified by the Bank to the customers via permanent data storage (which shall not exceed the rate set out in the Communique governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions) shall accrue on the overdue debt balance, and on accelerated debt in cases of acceleration described in this agreement, from the date of interest collection as designated by the parties until actual payment date, and BITT and RUSF related to such sum as well as all expenses incurred by the Bank.

L.7 Loan interest shall be accrued and collected periodically. Date of opening of the account, or any other day designated by the parties, shall constitute the basis of interest accrual in future months. If the accrual date and collection date corresponds to a date that is not within such month or to a holiday, transactions will be performed on the subsequent business day. The Bank shall be authorized to change the interest accrual period by announcing, notification etc., and where so required by the legislation, by notifying the Customer.

The Customer agrees, represents and undertakes that, on the date of utilization of Overdraft Account, such date will be considered as value date; while in case of settlement of the loan by transferring money, subsequent date will be considered as value date, and if the Account is used on a holiday, value date will be the prior business date, or in case of settlement of the loan by transferring money to the account on a holiday, subsequent business date will be considered as value date.

L.8 In case of exceeding the credit limit for any reason, the Customer agrees and represents that, he/she shall also be liable for the amount exceeding the credit limit under the provisions of this Agreement, and interest to be calculated over the rate notified by the Bank to the customers via permanent data storage (which shall not exceed the rate set out in the Communique governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions) shall accrue on the exceeding amount, from the date of exceeding the limit.

L.9 If the Customer fails to make payment on the date he/she may determine at the beginning and notify to the Bank or which may be determined on the basis of the date of opening of the Overdraft Account as agreed-upon with the Bank (the "due date"), his/her debt arising from utilization of the Overdraft Account shall become due and payable without requirement of any further notice. If the due date corresponds to a date that is not within that month or to a holiday, the debt shall become due and payable on the following business date. default interest to be calculated over the rate notified by the Bank to the customers via permanent data storage (which shall not exceed the rate set out in the Communique governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions). The Customer agrees that, if it becomes understood that any of the information provided by him/her to the Bank is not true, or if he/she becomes insolvent fully or partially, or if third parties initiate provisional attachment or attachment against the Customer, or if the Customer fails to provide additional guarantee despite requirement of an additional guarantee in necessary cases, or if the debt becomes unpaid as a result of his/her death, or if he/she goes bankrupt, or applies for the deferral of the bankruptcy, or requests respite in a composition agreement, or becomes interdicted, or a trustee is appointed on him/her or his/her assets or there is another justified reason, the Bank shall be authorized to declare the entire debt due and payable and request prompt payment. If it becomes necessary to transfer the account balance to legal follow-up due to acceleration of the debt for the reasons mentioned above; then the total principal amount as well as interest, RUSF and BITT not yet collected by the Bank as of the date of legal follow-up on such principal amount shall be transferred to legal follow-up.

Bank's established pledges as described in the relevant articles of this agreement (lien, right of mortgage, right of retention, surety) shall remain effective until settlement of all debts of the customer against the Bank that have accrued or will accrue for any reason whatsoever, including surety.

L.10 Upon existence of righteous cause, and by giving a notice via notary public or other means, the Bank may close the overdraft account opened in the name of the customer, or terminate the agreement, through notary public or otherwise. The Customer agrees and undertakes that, if the Bank closes his/her accounts or terminates the agreement, he/she shall pay all his debts to the Bank that have accrued or will accrue by reason of interest, RUSF, BITT, fees, commissions and other issues payable to the Bank as of the time closure or termination in connection therewith, promptly, in cash and in full, upon his/her receipt of the closure or termination notice.

L.11 In case of a change to the rate applicable to the Overdraft Account (Additional Account), 30 days in advance prior to the effective date of this change, a notice shall be sent to the Customer on paper or in the permanent data storage unit, and in case the interest rate is increased, the new rate shall not be applied to the past. The Customer shall not be affected from the interest rate in case he pays his entire debt at the latest within sixty days from the notice date and he terminates the use of the Overdraft Account.

M - INSTANT BANKING SERVICE

The Customer agrees, represents and undertakes that;

M.1 All of his/her transactions using the "Customer Number" and Code/Codes given by the Bank and/or code tables/devices on the Instant Banking applications offered by the Bank, which he/she requests to be made available by applying in person to the Bank or using Instant Banking tools, will be performed without his/her signature, according to the operation of the system, and any instruction given with the related Customer number and using the Code/Codes and/or code tables/devices will be considered as his/her written instruction,

M.2 He/she shall keep the Customer number given by the Bank and the code/codes with rigor, any transactions performed by using his/her customer number and Code/Codes shall be considered to be performed by him/her, and regarding usage of Debit Cards and Credit Cards, abovementioned provisions shall be equally effective in Instant Banking Service applications,

The Customer shall be obliged to return the principal amount and pay the interest within thirty days. In case the return and these payments are not done within that period, the Customer shall be deemed not to have withdrawn. In such a case, any and all instructions, including the cancelled automatic payment instructions based on the withdrawal notice shall not be automatically activated and the Customer shall be required to give instructions again in order to activate them.

In circumstances where the Customer is deemed not to have withdrawn, the interest that may arise due to the late payment of debts following the delivery of the withdrawal notice shall be paid by the Customer.

In case of a withdrawal, expenses paid to public agencies, bodies or third parties shall be borne by the Customer and these sums shall be in no event returned to the Customer.

THE BANK'S LIABILITY IN RELATED LOANS

"Related Loan Agreement" pursuant to the Consumer Protection Law is an agreement where consumer loan is solely lent to finance an agreement for the supply of a specific good or service and where these two agreements make up an economic union objectively. Pursuant to the said Law, the presence of economic unity will be accepted if at least either of the following occurs:

- (a) the seller or provider finances the consumer loan;
- (b) in case of a finance by a third party, the lender uses the services of a service provider or seller for the execution or preparation of the loan agreement;
- (c) the provision of a specific good or service is clearly stated in the loan agreement.

In related loans, if the goods or services are not duly delivered or performed or not delivered or performed at all, the provider and the bank shall be severally responsible in case the consumer uses its right to withdraw from the sales agreement or to get a discount from the price. In the event that the customer uses its right to demand a discount from the price, the related loan will be accordingly deducted and payment plan will be accordingly changed. Where the customer exercises his right to withdraw from the agreement, the seller, provider and bank shall be severally liable for the return of the payments made by it up to that time. But in circumstances where the bank's liability shall be one year from the date of the delivery of goods and the performance of service set out in the sales contract or related loan contract in case where the good is not delivered or service is not performed, or from the date on which the good is delivered or the service is performed in case the good is delivered or the service is performed.

GUARANTEES TO BE ASKED

If upon the Bank's request, the Credit Card Holder fails to evidence his/her income, or if the income declared by the Credit Card Holder is deemed insufficient by the Bank or if the Bank determines that Credit Card Holder's ability of repayment has diminished/ or there are other justifiable reasons, then the Bank may require surety or pledge of movable/immovable assets and/ or any other guarantee applicable to the Bank from the Credit Card Holder during the credit relationship. In cases where the Credit Card Holder and/ or Guarantors lose their ability to pay or the collaterals received diminish in value and thus they should be completed, the Customer agrees that the Bank shall be entitled to require new suretyship or movable/ immovable pledges.

RISK DECLARATION FORM FOR CAPITAL MARKET TRANSACTIONS

Important Remark: As well as profits, there is the risk of loss that may occur as a result of transactions in capital markets. In this regard, before deciding to perform any transaction, account holder must understand the risks he/she may encounter in the market, and make decisions considering his/her financial situation and constraints.

For this purpose, account holder must be informed on the issues below that are stated in the "Capital Market Transactions Risk Declaration Form" as provided for in the article 13 "Communiqué on Principles on Brokerage Activities and Brokerage Houses" Serial: V No:46, of the Capital Markets Board.

Warning: Before starting transactions, account holder must check whether the institution he/she wishes to work with has the "Licence" related to the capital market transactions he/she wishes to make. Banks and capital market brokerage houses authorized in capital market transactions can be learned at www.spk.gov.tr or www.tspakb.org.tr websites.

Risk Declaration: In addition to the issues stated in the "Framework Agreement" to be signed by him/her with the brokerage house he/she shall make transactions at, it is crucial that the account holder gains information on the issues below.

a) Provisions of all relevant legislations issued by the Capital Markets Board, stock exchanges and clearance centers and all similar administrative regulations shall be applicable on the account opened with the brokerage house and all transactions performed on such account. b) Capital market transactions are subject to risks at various rates. As a result of price movements in the market, you may lose not only the entire money deposited with the brokerage house, but also your losses may exceed even the amount deposited, depending on the type of transaction made. c) In transactions like credit purchase or short sale, it must be considered that, transacting with low equity may prove beneficial due to leverage effect, but it may turn out on the contrary. In this regard, leverage effect may bring high levels of returns for the account holder but on the other hand, they may cause high levels of losses. d) Account holder must consider that, information and advices given by the brokerage house to him/her in relation with the transactions performed by the account holder in the markets may be deficient and may require verification. e) It must be considered that, technical and fundamental analyses made by authorized personnel of brokerage houses regarding the trades of capital market instruments may vary from person to person, and that the anticipations in such analyses have the probability to certainly not occur. f) In transactions in foreign currencies, it must be known that, in addition to the risks stated above, there is a currency risk, and values may be impaired in Turkish Liras due to currency fluctuations, and governments may restrict foreign capital and currency movements or impose additional and/or new taxes, and the trades may not be timely performed. g) Before starting transactions, account holder must have confirmation of the brokerage house on all commissions and other transaction fees he/she is obligated with. If the fees are not expressed monetarily, a written explanation containing understandable examples related to how the fees will be reflected monetarily to the account holder must be obtained.

This "Capital Market Transactions Risk Declaration Form" aims at informing the investor generally on current risks, and may not cover all risks that may arise out of trades of capital market instruments and of practice. Therefore, account holder must perform a careful research before directing his/her savings to such investments.

I agree, and represent that I have read and acknowledged all the issues above; and I have signed this "Capital Market Trades Risk Notification Form" on my free will, save for my rights to claim and sue for my damages that may arise as a result of Bank's negligence or omission during the application of these principles, and I have taken a copy of the Form by signing the Agreement.

PARTICULAR ISSUES RELATED TO THE AGREEMENT

If an Overdraft Account limit is allocated to the Customer due to a demand acceptable to the Bank, the Bank shall be authorized to set the credit limit and utilization terms depending on the then prevailing conditions and his/her finances; and the Bank may notify the new credit limit so determined on the Customer's discretion or request in writing or via permanent data storage unit upon the Customer's request, and even though such notification is not made or not received by the customer, he/she shall comply with the limit change as of the date of such change, and shall utilize the credit from the Overdraft Account within the credit limit set by the Bank.

Provided that the rate set out in the Communiqué governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions shall not be exceeded, credit interest to be calculated over the rate to be notified by the Bank to customers via permanent data storage unit shall be periodically accrued and collected. The Customer agrees and represents that the interest over its Overdraft Account associated with his/her Demand Deposit Account held with the Branch and the RUSF and BITT over such amount from his account, and other expenses will be collected by the Bank on its discretion, and if his/her account balance is not sufficient to cover such amounts, default interest to be calculated over the rate notified by the Bank to the customers via permanent data storage (which shall not exceed the rate set out in the Communiqué governing Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Transactions) shall accrue on the overdue debt balance, and on accelerated debt in cases of acceleration described in this agreement, from the date of interest collection as designated by the parties until actual payment date, and BITT and RUSF related to such sum as well as all expenses incurred by the Bank.

In case the credit limit is exceeded for any reason, the Customer agrees and represents that he shall be liable for such excess part subject to the provisions of this Agreement; that moreover, from the limit excess date, he shall pay a default interest which shall not exceed the rate set out in the Communiqué on Maximum Interest Rates applicable to Credit Card Operations for the excess portion.

In case of justified reasons, the Bank may give a notice via notary public or otherwise, and may terminate the agreement or close the Overdraft Account opened in favour of the customer. The Customer agrees and undertakes that in case the Bank closes the accounts or terminates the Agreement, he shall immediately pay the Bank all such interest payable to the Bank at the time of termination or closure, the applicable BITT, the RUSF, fees, commission fees and other present or future debts due to the Bank thereunder in cash and in full upon the receipt of the termination or closure notice.
